Dear Parents,

Parent Partners

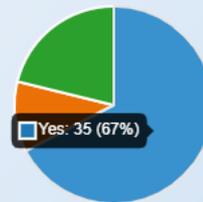

At the end of last year we asked all parents to complete a parent survey and we have spent the last half term carefully evaluating the results. It is now time to share some of the results and our next steps. This week we will be focusing on the following questions:

I know what my child is learning at school

2023 Yes- 81%

Parkgate Infants and Nursery responds well to any concerns that I have

2023 Yes- 67%

This year we are launching our parent partners initiative, the aim of this will be to share and build on the different ways that we tell you what children have been learning in school but also share with you the ways that you can share any concerns that you may have.

This year we will be looking to review the ways that we share curriculum information with parents and part of this will include a review of our curriculum information sessions for parents. We will be reviewing homework and how Seesaw is used to share this information. This week I have also had my first parent rep meeting.

Parent reps are a point of contact if you are not sure about how something works at Parkgate Infants, they meet with me regularly and they also support new parents who join Parkgate. Their role is not connected to Friends of Parkgate Infants (PTA) or governors (although they could also be both).

I hope as the year goes on to share all the different ways we are developing our vision of working together through our parent partners initiative.

Fundraising News

We are pleased to confirm we raised £127 for Jeans for Genes!

Many thanks to all who donated!

New Roof

We are pleased to announce that we will be having a new roof! Our roof has leaked for a number of years, we put a bid in to Hertfordshire County Council for a new roof which was accepted.

The project will start after half term and will last for around 20 weeks. When you return after the half term break you will notice a significant amount of scaffolding around the site. Please be reassured that we have carefully considered the impact and risks of this taking place.

I also need to share that parents who use our breakfast club will not be able to drive on site in the morning due to the health and safety risks.

Well done to Badger class who had this weeks best attendance!

This week in Badger Class...

We had a fantastic trip to the library on Wednesday morning. When we arrived, the librarians read us a story.

We then had a chance to look at some of the amazing selection of books and found out that the library is free to join! Then we worked in groups to write short stories using story cubes to help us. We had a great time!

This week in Parkgate Pirates ...

This week's theme in the wraparound club was 'My house/home and where I live'.

We talked to children about the type of house or flat they live in and asked them if they know the name of their street and town. Everyone really enjoyed this topic and produced some really lovely work.
