Dear Parents,

Roof

I am sure that you have noticed that the roof project has been progressing over the last few weeks. The back of the building is almost finished and the roofers have been working over the front of the school. Over the next month we should see the canopies return and the installation of new roof lights.

PHSE Curriculum Session

Next Thursday at 2.40, Mrs McCarthy (our PHSE leader) will be hosting our PHSE curriculum session. This session will be recorded however if you attend you will get to see some of the curriculum resources that we use.

Behaviour Curriculum

Over the last few months, I have been busy working with Mrs Pipe (the headteacher of Parkgate Junior School) to create our behaviour curriculum.

The behaviour curriculum sets out our expectations for how children should behave at Parkgate Infants and Nursery and Parkgate Junior School– we call this the 'Parkgate Way'. It also sets out an expectation that positive behaviour should taught to children.

Our behaviour curriculum includes how children sit in assembly and in the classroom, how children should line up and how children are expected to behave at lunchtime.

We also include our expectations around uniform which I have included below:

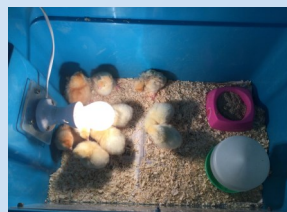

Uniform

1. See Uniform policy for details of what children should wear.
2. Only stud earrings can be worn in school.
3. No jewellery can be worn, except for religious observance.
4. No nail varnish.

Our behaviour curriculum is available on the school website.

Living Eggs

We are very excited to have chicks in school– all 10 eggs have now hatched. They will be visiting each class next week!

Have a lovely weekend,

Mr Pritchard

This week in Parkgate Pirates....

This week, the children took part in St George's Day activities. They listened to a story about St George and coloured pictures of dragons, horses and other characters from the mythical story about St George. They particularly enjoyed colouring St George's Day themed bookmarks and making their own paper crowns.

Easter Reading Challenge

We have some sheets with no name on them so can't give out the certificates yet. If you or your child recognise the pictures here, could you please let their teacher or the office know or email Mrs Parr at library@parkgatejm.herts.sch.uk
