Supporting Your Child With Reading Sessions

To kick off National Libraries week on 9-13 October, Parkgate Infants will be offering sessions on supporting your child with reading. The first session will involve our school librarian, Mrs Parr, providing some hints and tips on doing this and you can take away handouts to help you at home. The second session warmly invites you to come and share some quality reading time together with your child, choosing books from our fantastic range of library books. Letter will be sent home nearer the time.
